Det. Rhoden: [REDACTED] Alright. And this is your address where you're living right now. And you attend [REDACTED] right now, correct?

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: How far along are ya?

[REDACTED] I'm a junior.

Det. Rhoden: Junior?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Good deal. Okay. And the telephone number that we spoke on is a good number for you, but give it to me again, please.

Det. Rhoden: [REDACTED] Okay. [REDACTED] before I, I turned the recording on, I kind of explained to you a little bit about what we wanna do today. Um, and I wanna start with going through everything that happened leading up to involving and then after your attendance at the concert.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So I know that a lot of people and I assume yourself, you were one of them that, you couldn't really get a lot of medical treatment because there was so much stuff going on.

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: So you wound up coming back here to actually get treated.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Explain to me how you wound up in Las Vegas in the first place. Did you go there specifically for the concert?

[REDACTED] For the concert.

Det. Rhoden: For the concert?

[REDACTED] We've gone like every year for the past 3 years.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] So we went. I meet my mom there from California and so then we always meet there.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Okay. And I guess [REDACTED] went with you?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Did anybody else go with you?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And [REDACTED] is uh, uh, the Officers at TCU had a idea who [REDACTED] was, but they weren't, is last name [REDACTED]?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Is that correct?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So they had kinda figured out who [REDACTED] was. Um, so did you actually go, you said you met your mom in Las Vegas. You didn't go to California and then come?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: You went straight to Las Vegas?

[REDACTED] I met my mom in Las Vegas.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So did you drive or fly?

[REDACTED] Flew.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you flew from [REDACTED] to McCarran or did you go out of-

[REDACTED] From [REDACTED]

Det. Rhoden: [REDACTED]?

[REDACTED] To McCarran. Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: To McCarran? Okay. Where did you stay at while you were there?

[REDACTED] Uh, the MGM.

Det. Rhoden: At the MGM?

[REDACTED] Signature, yeah.

Det. Rhoden: The MGM Signature?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Alright. And so uh, Sunday was the day of the concert?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: And so I'm assuming you just walked since you were at the MGM?

[REDACTED] Well, it was all 3 days. So Friday, Saturday, Sunday.

Det. Rhoden: Oh, was it a 3 day? I'm sorry. I've never been so I don't-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Know. Okay.

[REDACTED] Um, so we flew in um, Thursday night. I flew in and she flew in like a few hours after me.

Det. Rhoden: She? You mean [REDACTED]?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: [REDACTED] Okay.

[REDACTED] Uh huh. And then so we, my mom and I and [REDACTED] we went to the concert Friday and Saturday and then Sunday.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Alright. So you got to see most of it.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Alright. So Sunday when you, well, let me back up a little bit. The other two days of the concert, was there anything unusual? Anything that struck your, you know-

[REDACTED] Nuh uh.

Det. Rhoden: Attention or anything like that?

[REDACTED] No. Nuh uh.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, no unusual police activity or uh, no people running around acting crazier than they would-

[REDACTED] Mhm. No.

Det. Rhoden: At a concert I guess?

[REDACTED]

Nuh uh.

Det. Rhoden:

So nothing that really-

[REDACTED]

No.

Det. Rhoden:

Okay. Drew your attention? Out of the ordinary?

[REDACTED]

No.

Det. Rhoden:

Um, so Sunday, you're in the concert-

[REDACTED]

Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

Now I, I, I've just seen obviously like everyone else has, pictures on TV, but I actually have a daughter that lives out there in Las Vegas-

[REDACTED]

Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

So I kinda know the area a little bit.

[REDACTED]

Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

I know that there's that big field and it's kinda across from-

[REDACTED]

Luxor.

Det. Rhoden:

The Luxor and Mandalay and it's across the strip there. That big kinda-

[REDACTED]

Yeah.

Det. Rhoden:

Dirt area-

[REDACTED]

Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

There and so I know how it's laid out a little bit-

[REDACTED]

Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

But um, where was the stage located at? Was it like up towards the strip or was it-

[REDACTED]

So like-

Det. Rhoden:

Towards the airport or?

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT
(Continuation)

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

[REDACTED] Towards the hm, I would say towards the airport. I'm not like positive. I don't know like the geography, but um, it's like the stage is facing perpendicular to Las Vegas Blvd. So like if you're facing-

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] The stage and you look to the right you see Mandalay Bay and um, the Luxor.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Okay.

[REDACTED] To the side. Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: That makes perfect sense to me. Okay. So the stage is perpendicular to the Las Vegas Blvd.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: And if you're looking at it to your right is Luxor and-

[REDACTED] The hotels.

Det. Rhoden: Mandalay Bay and such is that.

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: So where are you at when everything starts to kinda happen?

[REDACTED] So we, [REDACTED] and I were standing like middle of the stage, about like 20 people back during the concert.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you were pretty close.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And so she, we had been there for the previous set and during the break and we're standing there. And like I don't know how many songs into Jason Aldean it was that like, the person who was singing when it happened, but she turns to me and she's like, "I, I need to go to the bathroom." And I was like, "Really?" Like, "Right in the middle of a concert you're gonna make us walk to the bathroom?" Like, "Come on. Can't you wait?" And she's like, "No, I can't wait." And so we turn and we start walking like so back to the stage and then to the right. So away from-

Det. Rhoden: The strip?

[REDACTED] Away from the strip.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT
(Continuation)

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: Away from Las Vegas Blvd?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: So kind of you're walking away from the stage and to your right which is-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Moving you away from, kinda towards the airport and away from the boulevard?

[REDACTED] The, yes. Yes.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And so we're and then we randomly pass my mom. And we're like, "Oh, hey." And I was like, "Oh, [REDACTED] has to go to the bathroom." Like so annoying. And then literally 5 steps after we pass her, like we hear the gunshots start. And I literally just grabbed [REDACTED] and we just ran and like right there towards the right side there by where the bathrooms were, there was an exit. And so we just like ran out of there and as we were running like I felt something hit my foot and I was like, "My foot! My foot! I can't run." And then she was like, "I know. My leg. Like just keep running." And so we ran out that exit and like I don't even know how far. Like we were just in a crowd going wherever we could and like we couldn't like know which way the gunfire was coming from or like if they were in the concert or like if we were running towards them. And so we just like ran perpendicular to the Las Vegas Blvd. Like just away. Like down past like a Motel 6. We were in the Motel 6 for a little bit and then ran across the street and then made our way like back to MGM. Like through the parking garage between like the cement wall and cars. Like running through there.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And then like into the, but at that point like MGM had been like nobody in, nobody out.

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

[REDACTED] But like I think the way we went in like through the parking garage, we had to go underground and then come back in so like we got in. And then just ran back to our hotel room.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So and you gave me a lot of information right there and I just wanna walk back through it real slow and make sure I-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Kinda understand.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT
(Continuation)

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: So you were, you and [REDACTED] were headed towards the bathroom.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: You ran into your mom.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. How close can you guess were you to where the bathrooms were? Was, were you farther than from here to the street or do you think it was-

[REDACTED] I would say like the houses across the street.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you were probably, you know, 50-60 feet from 'em?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Something like that?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you're headed towards the bathrooms and the bathrooms, I guess, the back, what were they? Like porta-potties?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Is that what they were?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Were the backs of the porta-potties facing the boulevard?

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: And the doors were facing inside the, the area?

[REDACTED] Yeah, but it's like 2 rows. So like the doors of the porta-potties face each other, but like this row, the backs face the boulevard.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Well, now. Well, now hold on. Let me back up just a second. That's why I asked this question. When you say you turned, you were watching the concert. Emma says she's gotta go to the bathroom. You turn your back to the stage and you're walking-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT
(Continuation)

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: And you said that when you were walking away from the stage-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: That you were kinda going to your right a little bit that was taking you away from the boulevard.

[REDACTED] Away from Las Vegas Blvd.

Det. Rhoden: Right.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: So the, so the, but so the bathrooms were on the opposite side-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: From the boulevard? Okay. So the exit that you went out didn't go back to the boulevard-

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: It went out behind the-

[REDACTED] A different, I'm, a different boulevard I guess is what I'm saying.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. A different street?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. That-

[REDACTED] Yeah, yeah.

Det. Rhoden: I just wanted to make sure I had-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: My head wrapped around it-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: So I could understand. So you went out to the street that was behind the venue basically?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: The other side of the venue from Las-

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

[REDACTED] The Las Vegas strip.

Det. Rhoden: The main boulevard.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, so as soon as the gunfire starts, you don't know where it's coming from-

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: You just hear gunfire?

[REDACTED] We all thought it was like someone in the venue just like spinning in circles just like shooting.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] So-

Det. Rhoden: Well, let me ask you this question. Um, have you ever fired a gun?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Shot a gun? Anything like that?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you kinda know what a, how loud a gun is and things-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Of that nature. So it sounded pretty loud? You thought it was pretty close by?

[REDACTED] Yeah. I mean-

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Like my dad's retired from the Sheriff's Department and so like we like when, 'cause a lot of people thought like it was um, like fireworks or like part of the show-

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

[REDACTED] Or something, but I feel like, like literally when I've heard it, like I've heard an automatic rifle go off.

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT
(Continuation)

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

[REDACTED] And like, like I literally just grabbed [REDACTED] and like we just started running.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And then I, you just commented that it sounded like an automatic rifle?

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: So it was real rapid fire?

[REDACTED] Rapid.

Det. Rhoden: Rapid succession?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Just a guess. How long do you think from the time you realized that shots were going off until the last one?

[REDACTED] I mean, like-

Det. Rhoden: And I know that time it's like 30 minutes seems like 10 seconds-

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: Or 10 seconds seems like 30 minutes-

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: So I know it's hard to say-

[REDACTED] I mean, right.

Det. Rhoden: But was-

[REDACTED] We had-

Det. Rhoden: Was he still shooting when you made it back to the MGM? Were you-

[REDACTED] Not to the MGM.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] But he was still shooting like we had gone two blocks away from the strip and then one block towards MGM. So like that amount of time, I mean, I would guess like I have no idea.

Det. Rhoden: Well, no, no.

[REDACTED] In that moment-

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Well, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to put you on the spot there.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: It's just the way you described it is good for me.

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: It, the, that you said you made it about two blocks away and that's moving with a big crowd of people-

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: So you're not running full speed flat out.

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: You're having to fight your way through the crowd.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: So you got two blocks-

[REDACTED] And that's like us getting through fences 'cause that whole venue was like-

Det. Rhoden: Sure.

[REDACTED] Blocked off so people pushing through fences, push, people pushing through like that Motel there 'cause it was like where it's like a two-story motel, but it's outside. You know? Like it's not a closed hotel where you go in through a door. Like-

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

[REDACTED] The doors are outside and so everyone's running through there to try to like make sure they're covered and so it's like stopped in there. And then like getting across the street too, cars are just like everyone's honking. Everyone's just trying to get away. So if I had to guess though, I would say like between 5 and 10 minutes.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Until the gunfire stopped.

Det. Rhoden: So and I'm not even gonna ask you how many shots you think might've been fired-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: 'Cause you said that it was pretty fast. Was it like-[REDACTED] really fast.

Det. Rhoden: Boom, boom, boom, boom, boom for the most part?
[REDACTED] Yeah, for the, and constantly.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Like the whole time we were running like that I, if there were breaks like it was maybe a few seconds.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Like it was, it was never like, like a period of time where like there was a break and then like you heard it again. Like we just-

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So now I know that you and [REDACTED] went together to the concert and your mom was there. Any other friends or anybody?

[REDACTED] My mom was with her fiancé.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So now are they running with y'all?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Headed back to the-

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you and [REDACTED] make it two blocks away from, going away from Las Vegas Blvd-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: From the venue.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: And then you kinda turn back and head towards the MGM.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: You said you stayed in a Motel 6 for a few minutes? Was-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: Was it like-

[REDACTED] That everyone kinda stopped real quick and was like, "What's going on?"

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Like looked around and made sure this was like real life.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And then you made your way back to the MGM. You were able to get into the parking garage.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: And then go in and back up to your room.

[REDACTED] We went up, we went, we saw the parking garage and went up and floor and then like from there ran towards the hotel and then like the way MGM's set up like we had to go through the MGM Hotel-

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

[REDACTED] To get to like the Signature like-

Det. Rhoden: Right.

[REDACTED] Condos.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Now you'd, the way you described it earlier, you were running and you felt the pain in your foot.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Now was that before you actually got out of the main venue?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you were still inside where the actual concert was taking place?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: When you, you felt the pain?

[REDACTED] Yeah, like I could see the porta-potty that I was like running towards like when I felt something hit my foot.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And at what point did you actually stop and check and inspect your foot?

[REDACTED] I didn't.

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

Statement Of: [REDACTED]

Event #: 171001-3519

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So-

[REDACTED] Until we got back to the hotel room.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And that's perfectly normally. Alright. Um, so when you got back to the hotel room, it's you and [REDACTED] in, in your room?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, what was the first thing that you did once you got back to the room?

[REDACTED] Well, we got back and my mom and her fiancé were there so were there, 'cause they were behind us.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And so like we, I, I couldn't get ahold of them while we were running and so like first we saw them and we were like, "Oh my gosh. Like what happened?" And then they had brought back another girl who like got separated from her group. So they just grabbed her while we were running and like brought her back to our hotel room and then I took off my boot and like I, at that point I was like so much adrenaline. I was like, "Oh my gosh." And so I took off my boot and like my whole sock was like soaked in blood and so then we just sat down and like my mom's fiancé like gave us ice and water and like we all just like sat there and cried. Like-

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Did anyone in your group uh, call 911 or anything like that?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, what, let's talk about your boot for a second. Did you see a hole in it when you first started looking-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: At it?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Where was the hole at in your boot? Was it in the top? Was it in the side?

[REDACTED] In the sole.

Det. Rhoden: In the sole?

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So did it go all the way through?

VOLUNTARY STATEMENT

[REDACTED] Uh, like-

Det. Rhoden: The boot? Did it come out the top leather or-

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Was it just in the bottom?

[REDACTED] Just in the bottom.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So it was just in the bottom.

[REDACTED] Uh huh.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, what did you do with that boot? Do you still have it or is-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, now I know you didn't seek medical treatment there.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: But could you see what kind of injury, what, describe the injury on your foot for me.

[REDACTED] Um, it's like the bottom of my toe is like a gash like-

Det. Rhoden: About an inch?

[REDACTED] That big, yeah. And it's like-

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Is it your big toe?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And so it's like, it was like split open and then like 'cause when I took off my sock, all my toes were bloody, but it, and then I like rinsed it off and it was just that. And it was just like that toe had split open.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. I know in speaking with the Detectives in Las Vegas.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: That you, they talked about this little piece of uh-

Det. Rhoden: Shrapnel, basically, that you had found. Was that actually removed from your foot or was it something that you found in your boot or in your sock?

[REDACTED] In my boot. Like, like in my boot under my s-, like between my sock and my boot.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So it was, so they didn't actually, that's not something that they actually removed out of your body?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: That's something that you found in your boot?

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So you're there in the room, take a breath, realize I have to check on my foot.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Because I have this pain. You pull your boot off. You see all the blood.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: At what point did you find that little piece of metal?

[REDACTED] Um, I didn't. Just like I just sat on the couch and then my mom's fiancé, [REDACTED] grabbed my boot and he like was looking at it and looking at the hole in the bottom and then like-

Det. Rhoden: And then found-

[REDACTED] Found the little piece.

Det. Rhoden: The piece? Okay.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, so now we're back to the room. Okay. And you've got mom and [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and this other person that we don't know-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: That you just, somebody that y'all helped out.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Um, did that girl stay with y'all for very long or did?

[REDACTED] She stayed with us the whole night.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] And her like grandpa drove out, drove out from California like overnight and picked her up.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] That morning.

Det. Rhoden: So now we kinda move into Monday morning.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So y'all are still there. What day did you come back? Was it yesterday or today or?

[REDACTED] Yesterday. So she was supposed to leave um, for, she was supposed to leave the concert at 10:30 to get to the airport 'cause her flight was at 1 am.

Det. Rhoden: Oh, wow. Okay.

[REDACTED] To get back to class Monday and so were like thank God she didn't leave 'cause I would've been by myself, but and then I was supposed to leave at 8 am that Monday morning. And then so that night like hours later, we're still sitting there and like my mom went and changed our flights and so we flew back, we flew back together yesterday at 3. So we landed here at like 8 and then went straight to the hospital on our way home.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, so what did you do from the time that you got back to the room to the time that you left to go to the airport? Did y'all go anywhere else?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Talk to anybody?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Anything like that?

[REDACTED] No.

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

[REDACTED] Like didn't even leave our room to get ice. Like we were on lockdown.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. I understand.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Which hospital did you go to?

[REDACTED] Uh, Texas Harr-, Health Harris Methodist I think.

Det. Rhoden: Which one? Did you go to the one downtown or the one on Brian Ervin or?

[REDACTED] Um, it's like right next to Cook Children's.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So, so close to downtown Fort Worth?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So that's Texas Health Resources Harris is what that's called.

[REDACTED] Okay. Okay.

Det. Rhoden: Um, and I can't, I can't think of the address.

Det. Galloway: I cannot either. Pennsylvania Street though.

Det. Rhoden: 1301 Pennsylvania.

Det. Galloway: Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: 1301 Pennsylvania is the address. As much time as we spend there, you would think we would know that. Alright. So you go to the hospital. Um, what did they have to do to treat your foot? Did they have to put any stitches in it or?

[REDACTED] No. He looked at it and he said it was already infected so he couldn't close it. Um, so he stuck these two horrible needles in it to numb it and then he just like started digging around-

Det. Rhoden: Scraping it out?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

[REDACTED] And then after he did that they like irrigated and wrapped it and then I went in for an x-ray to see, make sure there was no more metal in it.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: I'm certain uh, now aside from obviously your mom, I'm sure you've talked to your mom a dozen times.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Since you got home.

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Um, have you discussed what happened with anybody else?

[REDACTED] With my dad.

Det. Rhoden: With your dad?

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Um, anybody else?

[REDACTED] Um, I don't, no. Like just that I'm okay.

Det. Rhoden: No, and I'm not, I'm not talking about you know, oh my goodness I was there.

[REDACTED] Right. Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: You know, I mean just-

Det. Rhoden: And what is mom's telephone number?

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And [REDACTED] is her fiancé?

[REDACTED] Yes, [REDACTED] Last name is [REDACTED] and it's the same address.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And do you know his telephone number?

[REDACTED] I do not. I can get it.

Det. Rhoden: That's fine. That's fine.

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden: And he's the fiancé, correct?

[REDACTED] Yes.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Alright. Um, do you know anyone else, any other friends other than [REDACTED] and your mom and [REDACTED] that were there attending the concert or anything like that?

[REDACTED] A girl, like an alumni in our sorority. She was shot in the head and like was un-, she went un-, underwent surgery this morning and so we're still like waiting to hear.

Det. Rhoden: Involved. Um, and I assume she's still there?

Yeah. Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: In Las Vegas. Okay. Uh, what about this girl that stayed with y'all? Do you know what her name was?

I do. She messaged me on Facebook today, but um, she's from California and she was like leaving the concert 'cause she thought like she had drank too much-

Det. Rhoden: Mhm.

And so like her friends were there and she was like I'm just gonna go back to the, she was staying at Mandalay Bay.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. And I would like to get her information from you as well.

[REDACTED] Yeah. Yeah.

Det. Rhoden: Before we're done. Um, okay. Uh, Detective Galloway, have I forgotten anything? Missed anything?

Det. Galloway: No, sir.

Det. Rhoden: Alright. What I would like to do at this point is let's, let's talk about a medical release.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. Now what this form does is obviously your medical records are yours and they're private, but this form is you giving us permission to get your records pertaining to the injuries that you received, the treatment that you received-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Uh, for this specific incident. It's not all encompassing.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden: Now there's, I, I don't know the report number for-

[REDACTED] I have it if you-

Det. Rhoden: Well, I'll, I'm, I'm not that worried about it.

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden: Like we said, there's a lot of 'em out there that are doing it.

[REDACTED] Right.

Det. Rhoden: Um, but what I'm going to do, is I am going to out here on the side, I'm gonna put Las Vegas Metro PD. Just that way nobody else can fill anything in on that. Okay. So basically what this is, I'm gonna read it to ya.

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden: It's got your name, [REDACTED] I apologize-

[REDACTED] Mhm. It's okay.

Det. Rhoden: About that earlier. The date of service was October 2nd, 2017. That was yesterday. Det. Rhoden: Okay. The above information may be released to specify name of title, like I said, I don't know who exactly is gonna request it, but I put-

Det. Rhoden:

Something like that happens, alright? Um, I understand that the specified information to be released may include, but is not limited to history, diagnoses, and/or treatment of drug or alcohol abuse, mental illness or communicable disease, that's because this is the same form that we use for everything.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

Instead of having one for every individual situation, we've got one-

[REDACTED] Yeah.

Det. Rhoden:

For all of them. Including human immunodeficiency virus and acquired immune deficiency syndrome. I understand that treatment or payment cannot be conditioned on my signing this authorization except in certain circumstances such as for participation in research programs or authorization that will be some testing results for pre-employment purposes. I understand that I may revoke this authorization in writing at any time except to the extent that action has been taken in reliance upon the authorization. I understand that I may be charged a retrieval processing fee for the copies. If there is a fee, we pay it, you don't.

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden:

Okay. Of my medical records according to Texas Hospital Licensing Law and typically they don't charge us anything because it is for a legal process.

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

So they don't, but if you were to request it they might charge you the copy fee for it. This authorization will expire 180 days from the date of my signature unless I revoke the authorization prior to that time or unless otherwise specified by date, event, or condition as follows. That's the standard release form that we have to use throughout the state.

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden:

Alright. And I'm gonna put today's date on here now and if you will sign and print-

[REDACTED] Mhm.

Det. Rhoden:

Your name on there and be careful. Like I said, that's a little flexible so it's hard to write on.

Det. Rhoden: Where you have been injured.

Det. Galloway: And also, do you have the boot here?

[REDACTED] Um, I have it in my car.

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So what did they say about you have to go back and get it checked or what?

[REDACTED] Um, no. They, they gave me antibiotics so just said take those and if anything gets worse then come in, but other than that-

Det. Rhoden: Okay. So they're not gonna have to go in and sew anything up or do-

[REDACTED] Okay.

Det. Rhoden: At this point in time. Um, the question that I have for you right now is, is, is there anything that we haven't talked about? Any information? Maybe a question that I just didn't ask right or I forgot to ask that you think might be important?

[REDACTED] I don't think so. I think-

Det. Rhoden: Okay.

Det. Rhoden:

DETAILS

Heard many gunshots. Stage went black. Ran and everyone laid on the ground when we heard more gunshots, then kept running all the way to the airport. The fence was very tall and there was no where else to go. We kicked in / threw rocks at the glass wall of the nearby building. Then a pickup truck came and knocked down the fence. We kept running all the way behind a building on the runway. Then a police escorted us to a hangar where we stayed for a long time. Then a bus took us to UNLV Stadium for safety.

The following is the transcription of a tape-recorded interview conducted by DETECTIVE R. RAFFERTY (RR), P# 8919, on 10-03-17 at 1826 hours.

RR: Operator, this is Detective R. Rafferty, that's R-A-F-F-E-R-T-Y, P# 8919, dictating a victim's statement under Event 171001-3519. I'm currently at Sunrise Hospital. The date is October 3, 2017. The time is 1826 hours. I'm currently with victim [REDACTED] first name, [REDACTED] last name, [REDACTED] date of birth [REDACTED]. Ah, his phone number is [REDACTED]. All right [REDACTED] tell me what happened the other night.

BB: Well, we were at the concert and, uh, we were hanging out back by the bar off center stage there. Uh, we were having some drinks and having a good time and dancing and, uh, we were there for I'd say two hours, uh, maybe three. And then, uh, all of a sudden just out of the blue, it sounded like what everybody was screaming was fireworks except that there were people actually dropping on the ground. And, um, at that point, I mean, people were screaming and they were using, you know, words other than fireworks. At that point, people were saying, "Gun fire." And, um, and then there was - there was a brief moment where the firing sounded like it stopped. And at that point, I proceeded to try to run all the way to the front of the stage and find my wife who happened to be up there dancing. And, um, on my way up there, I got shot in the leg and so then I hit the ground and tried to find cover 'cause it was all I could really do.

RR: So then, from the time you hit the ground, what happens from there?

BB: Uh, once I hit the ground, I - there's another guy on the ground next to me there. I got his name at the time. I couldn't tell you now after two days here.

RR: Um-um.

BB: But, um, he was hit too, and I said, "Are you hit?" And he said, "Yeah, I'm hit." And I said, "Are you going to - are you - can you move?" And he says, "Yeah, I can move." So he was just laying there. And then I proceeded to crawl back towards the - where all the lights were. There was a sack of lights back. And there was a pylon and I knew a guy back there named Jason. And so I went back with him. And, uh, there was another girl that was laying next to us back there who was also hit. And, um, Jason was still there and so he said, "Just stay down, man." And, uh, then my wife called me back told me that she was okay. They had been hiding under something and, um, I told her I was fine and to go back to the hotel room. And then, um, once I was off the phone with her, I proceeded to try to find a car or a way to the hospital.

RR: And then, um, from there, did you come straight here or did you go to somewhere else and come back?

BB: No, we came straight here.

RR: Okay.

BB: Um, this pedestrian, um, laid a tourniquet on the ground right there with her belt. And then, somebody with their free car said, "Yeah, we will take you. Get in." So we hopped in and rode all the way here.

RR: In your mind, what - what's the rough duration from the time you start hearing fireworks to maybe when it stopped or when you're out of, you know, earshot?

BB: It felt - it felt like a long time but...

RR: Sure.

BB: ...I'm guessing maybe - maybe a couple minutes.

RR: Okay.

BB: I don't really know. I also had a lot...

RR: Sure, sure.

BB: I had a lot to drink...

RR: Of course.

BB: We were all there having a good time, so.

RR: Uh, is there anything else that you think is important maybe that I forgot to ask? Something else that you would like to add? Maybe what direction was this coming from? Like were you able to like pinpoint or maybe in general vicinity?

BB: It seemed to me as though it was coming, so I was in center stage, you know, kind of back a couple. It seemed to me that everybody that I saw getting pegged, it was coming at a downward angle from, I guess, what would be across which was the Mandalay Bay where we had been saying, you know. Um, but that's, and I'm pretty sure at that moment, I was running this way and it entered my - my ankle downward and that's it. Got me.

RR: Got it. Good. Operator, this is the end of the interview. Same parties are present. The time now is 1830 hours.

ON How to Retrieve AUDIO Recording to CD.
I START looking at the AUDIO Segment to see if ~~there~~ there were ANY Recording of the Sec / ENGINEERING TRANSMISSION. KNOWING Sec would be ASKING FOR Copy. At that I notice time Stamp was INCORRECT. I proceeded to make the time correct. To see if it would correct ANY Audio that was stored. Before I notice time was INCORRECT the DISC that ~~is~~ ALSO stored ON was full. I put ANOTHER DISC in, then I waited to make sure it was properly going to be stored ON DISC. I think it WAS Roughly AROUND 10AM when ~~I~~ time ON Audio Recorder WAS change so time would SYNC with what WAS going to DISC IN the RECORDER itself. No other system time were ADJUSTED at this time.

was at the Route 91 Festival during Jason Aldean set heard multiple "Firecrackers" sounds. I was standing on stage right and saw the crowd running towards us and I started to run when I was hit and fell down.
I took cover under the bar-b-q pit area in back. Kept hearing more + more shots. I was assisted to get up + went behind the Go Army truck + we heard more shots. The shots sounded louder there, like they were getting closer. The medic bandaged my knee + I was carried into the Tropicana. we took cover there for a couple of hours until we could get to the ambulance.

I'm currently at Henderson Hospital and I'm interviewing [REDACTED] all common spelling. Date of birth [REDACTED] Uh, he's a white male adult. His phone number is [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Also present with me is Lisa Pope and, uh, [REDACTED] Along with, uh, [REDACTED] what's your name, ma'am?

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

RB: Um, we were at the concert, the Route 91 Harvest Festival and we ended up, um, we're pretty close to the stage. And at some point, we - we both agreed that, you know, it's just getting too crowded up here. You know a couple of drunks up there and it was like, you know, let's - let's just go back: go to the bathroom, you know, grab something to eat or, you know whatever we wanted to do. So as we walked back and we went to the rest room and, uh, Jason Aldean had come on and it was during the third song of his set that, um, it sounded like firecrackers. And it was - it was strange 'cause it was - there was no smoke and that's kind of what I was looking for. Um, and there was two shots, two, four, I do believe and then right after that, the hail of gunshots. It just, it started. Um, we started - we started to exit, we started running back. And, um, unfortunately, I got disconnected from my wife. Um, we went over by the Budweiser tent, by the Budweiser booth right there. She slipped underneath and I was making my way over and kind of jumping the little cinder block walls, figured that would be a pretty save place. And, uh, that's when I was hit. I immediately went down. Um, that's apparently when I lost my phone. And then I was able to walk myself kind of under my own power for about 50 yards. And that was it. And, um, there was a guy who - who came and put his arm underneath me and he said, "Come on, we are getting out of here. Let's go." It's like, wow, okay, great. Um, so we started, we started - we started moving out and he said, "What's your wives phone number? I'll give her a call." So he was able to get a hold of..able to get a hold of her. And then from there, it just, it was more people running. Um, kind of mass hysteria of the masses, craziness. Um, and then after that we had, they put me down behind the Go Army semitrailers. The 53 footers or 48s or whatever they are over there. And there was two EMTs present that came over, wrapped my leg in gauze and tried to get me out of there. Doing the best they could. And there was a lot of yelling and screaming, you know, let's go, let's go, let's get out of here.

CB: And then the gunshots started.

RB: And then the gunshots started again. And it was just this, you know, between the first hail to the next hail, it was probably 30 seconds. And, uh, it just went and it was, um, it was frightening. You know and we ended up, um, going into the Tropicana, into their - it looked like their banquet rooms, reception area, among all their chairs and storage. And once we got in there, same thing, one guy, I should - I wish I caught his name. He said, um, "We'll go in this room." They were able to get a locked door open and so we went in there. And, um, just sat down and tried to put pressure on my knee. It wasn't really bleeding all that much at the time. And then, you know, he came in again and he was busting out light bulbs, just in case, you know, there was on active shooter...

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: ...that's coming around. So kind of hid behind a - a secondary door, um, that was back there. And, uh, stayed there until you went out. You called 911, finally was able to reach someone, it was hotel security.

CB: Mm-hm.

RB: So she was able to go out, reach hotel security and then, um, you know, they said someone is coming for you, someone is coming for you. We'll get you out of here.

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: And, um, they, a couple big guys came and picked me up and took me away. Um, it was, you know we could just hear the - the shots. It sounded much closer the second time. Um, and then, you know, after that we got upstairs and they were able to place me in a chair with wheels.

RR: Mm-hm.

RB: And kind of dragging me around the Tropicana like that. At one point, they actually carried me up three flights of stairs. So and then, um, after that, you know, we able to finally get, you know, attention. And we were outside, right?

CB: Yeah. We had a hard time finding like where the ambulances were.

RB: The triage.

CB: Where triage was and we just kept getting directed to different exits at the Tropicana so we just kept making our way back and forth through Tropicana and finally some guy came actually from the outside and came up the stairs and he said I just took someone to the ambulances, they're out here, let's go. And they carried him down the stairs and pushed him over down the street to where the ambulances were.

RR: And then where did you - what happened - did you come here first or did you go another?

RB: Small little old...

RR: Uh-huh. Little guy?

RB: Yeah.

RR: And then over here?

CB: Yeah.

RB: And then they were...

CB: They were just overflowing. So the EMTs said anyone who is stable, you know, we're going to take over here.

RB: So, basically the walking wounded.

RR: All right.

CB: They called him the walking wounded.

RR: Essentially, yeah. Um, okay, so real quick. You said you got hit in the knee. Above be low or actually in the knee is similar?

RB: Um, through the knee.

RR: Through the knee itself?

RB: Yeah.

RR: Okay. Um, and then question about the time line. So you hear the shots start, um, and then it lolls. It sounds like there's a pause, uh, and that's kind of seems like when everybody starts running. Yeah?

CB: Yeah.

RR: We have this realization...

RB: Yeah.

RR: ...that something's happening. How long between the first one and the second one, again between if there's a second and a third? Like is there noticeable gaps in your memory where, okay, yes, there's definitely a minute or 30 seconds that...

CB: Okay, so we were talking about there earlier, time is so weird.

RR: Uh, well yeah.

CB: When you're in that situation like.

RR: I understand, yeah.

CB: But there was definitely, like there was that first few shots and it was a handful. I don't know how many.

RR: Sure.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

CB: But it was just a handful. Enough for you do think, was that really gunshots?

RR: Sure.

CB: Or not? And then, you know we are kind of looking around and everyone around us was kind of doing the same thing.

RR: Sure.

CB: And then, um, people started screaming, "It's gunshots, get out," and then, you know, we heard that next round and then that kind of like went on and off. It didn't feel like there was much of a gap in there.

RR: Okay.

CB: And then, till we were out on the street. And then when we ran over to the parking lot where the big semis were...

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: ...and we were sitting back there. It's like it had been quiet for, felt like 30 seconds, a minute, a minute and a half. 'Cause we were starting to breathe a little bit, we're like, okay and then it started. We heard it start again and, um, it sounded like it was really close at that point. So no one was sure like, is it - is it really getting closer to us or is it just that, you know, we're in this open area now, so it sounds different. And, um, someone in the parking lot just started yelling, "Everyone, get out of the parking lot. Get out, get out, you know. Get in - get into the building, get moving." And so that's when those guys picked him up and, um, we started heading towards the Tropicana and we went in there.

RR: Could you tell what area where the rounds were coming from? Like I get that the sound is projecting over a large area, was there any kind of direction in your mind, you know, maybe over in this direction or maybe in several directions, is there any kind of thought in your mind, you know, like where they were coming from?

RB: It was pretty clear that it was coming from the Mandalay.

RR: Straight from Mandalay?

CB: Well, I don't know about that but in that direction, like very much 'cause we turned our attention that way.

RR: Right.

CB: And we started like easing over in that area.

RR: Got it.

CB: We were facing the stage and it was clearly, you know, we were looking over this way.

RR: Got it. Um, and then, I think that answered my question. You went to Spring Valley first and then since you were stable, they brought you here. Okay. Um...

RB: Answered (unintelligible) already.

RR: Was there anyone else that you were with that was also wounded kind of at the same time you were? Was there people you remember or people that went with you at all?

RB: I went down pretty quick.

RR: Uh-huh.

RB: And once I was, once I was down, there was a woman who physically fell on top of me.

RR: Okay.

RB: You know, at this point, I'm feeling trampled.

RR: Sure.

RB: Um, so she was there. I don't think she was hit.

RR: Mm-hm. She just fell maybe?

RB: But you know, she, you know and I kind of screamed, I said, you know, I've - I've been shot.

RR: Right.

RB: You know, get me out, get off me, get off me.

RR: Right, right, right.

RB: Um, and so that was - that was with her.

RR: Okay. Uh, anything else that sticks out in your mind? Any critical details or anything that maybe I forgot to ask or that you'd like to contribute to that?

RR: Sorry this happened to you here.

RB: Yeah, it was no. It wasn't ever really significant, you know?

RB: I can't say anything else either. It all happened so fast, it's...

RR: How about start to finish from the time this shooting started to it ended maybe, completely ending, do you know? Uh, you know I'm assuming you're in the Tropicana by then.

RB: Yeah, we are in the Tropa...

CB: Yeah, 'cause we were already in the Tropicana and we could still hear it.

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: Outside.

RR: Mm-hm.

CB: I couldn't even guess a timeline.

RR: It's okay.

During the start of Jason Aldean set @ rt 91 festival we heard "firecrackers" go off about 10 people back from the stage on the far right. about 30 people to my right. The sound occurred a second time & we thought what are these people doing. My husband pulled me down, I thought he fell, then we realized it was actually gunfire. we proceeded to jump the divider @ center stage and run to the back of the stage. There was additional gunfire when we reached the fence dividing the parking. A lady was hit by fire @ that time and landed into a white pine tree. We continued to run towards the "Video poker. com" sign. We attempted assessing any door →

JM: Okay. Um, what did you see?

CB: Um, the only thing that I saw was - well I heard some crackling, like fireworks, um, to my right side. And then it just stopped and then all of a sudden I turned back towards the stage and I kinda jerked and was like, oh man I got hit. 'Cause I thought it was

During the Jason Aldean concert, approx 4 gn shots went off that appeared to be coming from the stage. I stood to the left/middle stage when a woman in front of me went down and was holding her stomach or chest. Shortly after very many different sounding shots went off. I ran with my friend and many others away from the festival towards the airport until it was safe inside.

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

LP: Oh, [REDACTED] so sorry. [REDACTED] thank you. Uh, his date of birth is [REDACTED] and a good contact number for him is [REDACTED] which is to - to his wife, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] So, um, if you could just take us to, uh, the night and tell us what happened.

CB: Um, it was about probably 4 songs into Jason Aldean's set sounded like somebody set of firecrackers in the crowd and that's actually, kind of, what I think everybody thought it was. And then it stopped and started again. Right after it started again I was, like, that's gunfire, that's not -- so I looked over and a lady had been hit pretty close to me so I ran over. There's some younger kids on the ground, I tried to cover them up and they're like, it's just somebody with firecrackers, I'm like, no, there's a lady that just got shot right back here and they jumped up and took off and so, so, um, there was a trash can that was kind of nearby so I went to go get behind it. I felt I got hit in the back of the leg and I looked down and there was blood everywhere. When I got hit, I actually fell down and there was a guy that he's, like, everybody just calm down, it's just the fireworks and I'm, like, no, look at my leg. He's like, oh, crap, and he took off so there's the -- one of the buildings there's VIP buildings there, the overlook building thing, and it was, like, the safest place I could get to so I made it over there and made it up to the stairs. A couple guys came to me and were like, you all right, and I'm, like, no, I've been hit and the next thing I know I'm in the back of a pickup truck on the way here, so. But Yeah, it was going on a lot longer than that because I'm sure I was one of the first ones out of there because it seemed pretty quick, but, um.

LP: Were you with your - your wife?

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

CB: No, they were actually in another part of the venue. Actually, it ended up, they were probably about a hundred yards from me but I didn't know it. She was saying that she could actually see the muzzle flashes at Mandalay Bay. Because I thought it was just the venue at first.

LP: Okay.

CB: And they it just kept on going and going and going.

LP: So when you first heard what you thought was firecrackers, like, can you remember how many shots went off?

CB: I would say at least 30, at least 30.

LP: And then there was a pause?

CB: Yeah. There was about a 30-second pause.

LP: And that's why you-all were just looking around...

CB: Uh-huh.

LP: ...at each other...

CB: Yeah.

LP: ...trying to figure out what was that?

CB: Believe it -- I mean, because Jason Aldean kind of looked over and then started to sing again, and it started up again. And that's when I took off.

LP: And was there anybody else around you that you were with? Were you by yourself at the time?

CB: I was by myself.

LP: Okay. And like you said, there was a couple of girls you just kind of got down on top of and then two guys ended up helping you out?

CB: Yep.

LP: Okay. And then you guys were staying at the Excalibur when it happened and when you heard everything, could you tell the direction? I know you said you thought it was in the venue...

((Crosstalk))

CB: I thought it was in the venue. Even then it sounded like -- because there's a section direct by the VIP section that kind of cuts back and I think there may be an entrance gate back there. And then there's the little offices that look like for the concert promoters and stuff, back by the buses. As a matter of fact, when they started going off, I seen a lady pull to the door of the office and look outside to see what was going on.

LP: And so you said that you went from the actual venue...

CB: Mm-hm.

LP: And you went -- which way -- do you remember, like, which direction, or like, what you ran towards when you ran away?

STATEMENT OF [REDACTED]

CB: Um, it would've been, let's see, north, probably northwest, yeah, 'cause that buildings kind of in the middle on the northwest side.

LP: And what part of the venue were you at when - when you heard that? Like, were you on the main strip?

CB: Yeah, it was towards Las Vegas Boulevard on the right-hand side of the stage.

LP: And so two guys just put you in their truck and came right here?

CB: He - he had a bunch of other people.

LP: You and a bunch of other people, just got you out of there?

CB: Yeah.

LP: Okay. So you didn't - you didn't see anybody or like you said you couldn't tell which direction it was coming from or anything like that?

CB: Huh-uh.

LP: So from the initial time...

CB: I mean, it had to have been -- would had to have been southwest that it was coming from because actually when I got hit, I was going northeast.

LP: So the first shots go off, and then there's a pause and then the shots happen again and that's when you got hit, correct?

CB: Um, I can't remember -- I don't think it was that go around, I think it was the next one.

LP: The next one.

[redacted] (my boyfriend) and I [redacted] were standing to the right of the center walkway stage (closer to Mandalay bay area 1) just about 5 people away watching Jason Aldean perform. [redacted] was to my right side and a little bit behind me as we danced and sang along to the music having a great time. I heard what sounded like the confetti poppers we had seen and heard go off during [redacted] performance just prior to [redacted] I looked around to my right but there were no confetti I heard it again pop, and then again pop pop this time my heart sunk as I saw a man in his late 30's to mid-40's fall to the ground people all around him speculated he had passed out drunk but I knew when I looked down and saw his face with his eyes wide open lifeless that he was dead. I immediately grabbed [redacted] and pulled him down to crouch next to me I remember saying babe he was shot those are gun shots! [redacted] didn't believe me and stood back up, I remained crouched knowing in my heart what had happened then it began the sound of massive spraying of bullets as I covered my head and dropped to the ground screaming to [redacted] If he was ok it sounded to me as if there were helicopters directly above us shooting down at us. At that moment I thought this is a terrorist attack they are shooting at us from up above [redacted] and I stayed crouched down and another man whom I never saw but know it was a stranger was shielding me with his body he was laying over me. the first round had stopped [redacted] yelled babe we need to run! I yelled at him to get back down he panicked but he did and thank god because almost immediately the second round of spraying bullets began we stayed down and I just prayed to god [redacted] and I wouldn't get hit at that moment the woman directly behind us was hit in the back by a bullet all I could see was curly blondish brown hair and the group of people who were behind us screaming she needed a medic for someone to please help her. There was a pause a long pause and [redacted] said Babe we need to run now!!! this time I listened he jumped over people and made his way towards the center median I couldn't I couldn't just walk on people so I started grabbing all the women in front of me blocking my way to the fence and pulling them to their feet run I yelled my boyfriend and I helped 4 or 5 women over the fence then he helped me over and followed behind me. we immediately crouched down behind the fence as I looked for the next closest place to hide. I can't remember if there were shots being fired at this time but it was the sound stage 10 feet in front of us I saw and people hiding under the stage and enough room for us so I pointed towards it and we hauled ass as fast as we could towards it. as we approached the sound stage there was a darker man wearing a yellow shirt I believe a security guard laying on the floor he was gone I looked down at him and my heart broke there was nothing I could do for him he was already gone and as awful as I feel for doing this at the time we had no choice we jumped over his body and ran for cover. Just as we were getting under it I remember the spraying began again I managed to crawl under the stage that was only about a few feet high but my boyfriend did not he refused to climb under and just laid in front of it only half shielded by the stage I was begging him to come under with me but he refused he said he was ok he was safe where he was. people started trampling him trying to climb under the stage where I was and I got separated and pushed deeper under the stage I could hear the bullets hitting the metal above me and people running above me I thought to myself it's going to collapse and I'm going to die. I had taken that moment to text my sister in law [redacted] who had been staying with my kids at our home exactly 10:17 p.m. I wrote "Omg there's tons of gunshots and people dead everywhere" and a second text immediately after still at 10:17p.m. saying Pray for us I love you all" I then yelled for [redacted] and he didn't respond I started begging the people who were in front of me to look for him describing him as a man who was wearing a bright blue and orange shirt no one could see him I my heart sank and I started to panic. finally, I heard his voice say to me [redacted] I'm here I'm right here! I had never been so relieved in all of my life I he had moved further forward around the stage and was to the left of me now he said he couldn't see me only my eyes but I could see him and he was begging me to come out from under the stage he thought the shooter was in the concert, that he was going to find us all under there and kill us but every ounce of my being knew the shooting was coming from above and that we would be safe under there but not safe from it collapsing so I started asking the people in front of me to please switch places with me so I could reach him no one would move I remember a couple a man and a woman the blonde woman crying my baby I asked her if she was pregnant she didn't answer me she just sobbed and a heavy set man with tattoos behind me and a few young blond women in between [REDACTED] and I when the shooting stopped again [REDACTED] began pulling out the young women telling them to run he was now able to grab me and pull me out when I got to my feet I immediately looked for the next safest place to run it was the red Budweiser tent there was a big pole there big enough for both of us so we ran straight for it we stopped as I was completely out of breath and my mouth so dry I couldn't talk there was a beverage cart in front of us with a huge water bottle already open [REDACTED] grabbed it for me and I chugged it, at that moment an older man told us we needed to run and stay down, so I tossed the bottle and hand in hand we stayed crouched down and ran alongside the left side of the vendors staying close enough to where we could hide and take cover if need be we made it close enough to the exit and took our chance and ran for it as we were exiting the concert location there were cops everywhere and swat and ambulances, emt's and people who were injured everywhere I remember seeing people pushing someone on a beverage cart down the street towards Las Vegas Blvd. In front of what looked like a church I told [REDACTED] we should run to the church but it looked closed and he said no lets run to the closest casino. Throughout this time from the bud wiser tent all the way to the casino I don't recall any other shots being fired. We walked a few feet to Las Vegas Blvd. and crossed the empty street to the Tropicana We had just arrived when panic started there was a bomb people were yelling and running so we ran into the Tropicana hotel. I don't know entrance we were at or where we were but we ran. we stopped at a bathroom as I had to pee I went in first [REDACTED] waited and then he went in and I waited for what felt like forever. A man was outside waiting for his girlfriend he saw me in a panic and offered to help he gave me his water and went and grabbed a wet paper towel he said he wasn't trying to be fresh and asked if he could wipe the blood off my legs, I hadn't even noticed it was there, I wasn't injured it was someone else's blood. after he wiped down my legs I asked him to do me a favor to please check on [REDACTED] in the bathroom he said no problem I could hear him in the bathroom yelling [REDACTED] [REDACTED] replied "yeah?" he said it again [REDACTED]? [REDACTED] replied yeah? There was silence then he came out and said to me "I don't know why [REDACTED] decided right now was the best time to take a shit but he is!" without thinking I said well "well yeah it scared the shit out of him! everyone around me laughed and during the horror I did too. [REDACTED] came out scared something had happened to me and we left we made our way to a lobby it was empty except a couple who was hiding behind a service counter we sat there for a moment my sister in law called at 10:23 I missed the call so I called her back it was 10:25 p.m. I spoke to her for 1 min and 4 sec I let her know we made it out alive and we got disconnected I called her back at 10:30 p.m. and we spoke for approx. 2 min when my mom called at 10:32 p.m. I spoke to her for 2 min and when I hung up it disconnected both my phone calls so I called [REDACTED] back at 10:34 we spoke for 19 sec. I told her I didn't feel safe where we were and I would call again. A women approached us with her 3-5 yr. old daughter in her arms she asked if we worked there I replied no and I asked her if they were ok she said yes and looked confused as if she didn't know what was happening We got up and started making our way towards the sky bridge to MGM I remember feeling so unsafe out there and rushed to get into the MGM as soon as we reached the MGM there was an escalator full of people and then panic started again people were screaming there was a shooter [REDACTED] yelled to everyone not to panic and just quickly go straight everyone listened and no one was hurt running off the escalator we ran into the mgm and there were people everywhere gambling not having a clue what was happening but there was still chaos I don't know where we ran to but as soon as things calmed down panic arose again with people screaming there was a shooter in the building again I saw a door leading to an employee hallway so we ran through it and found ourselves at the mgm security's back office. We ran inside and there were already people from the concert in there taking cover as well as a few security guards. [REDACTED] and I made our way to the furthest back room and held each other tight. We stood there for a while before we sat down and began to calm down. [REDACTED] refused to move from the door way in case something happened he could react and protect me. we both had been receiving phone calls and texts from our friends I spoke to my best friend [REDACTED] who had been working at the hard rock she informed me she was able to get home and was glad I was alive, I spoke to Michelle fox I know he spoke to my brother [REDACTED] and his sister [REDACTED] and friends of our [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] and others who had downloaded and listened to the police scanner reporting to us what they had heard of multiple shooters in different hotels, we thought there were shooters everywhere I began looking for things we may need to survive I didn't know what was going to happen or how long we would be there. The left side of my head started hurting I found some Excedrin and a soda I was shaking feeling like my sugar was low so I took the medicine and drank the hot soda and tried to calm my nerves. I found a few medical supplies and bunch of maps of the hotel printed out I grabbed one in case we needed an escape route. I found a bible I opened it and sat on the floor to the first page it said prayers if you are in danger psalm 91 I read it and felt hope that we would make it home to my kids. we sat there for about an hour or so until a man in a suit told us he was moving us all to another location right down the hallway he brought us all to the hallway we felt extremely unsafe but they tried to assure us we were in an employee area there were 3 doors one leading to the ka show one leading to an employee hallway and the third leading outside. we were told we were free to leave at any time but that lvpd wanted us to stay put so we did. no one left. they brought us chairs and water and tee-shirts for us women who were cold we all sat and tried to comfort one another. we planned an escape route if the shooter found us and we just waited. It was around 1:30 a.m. when they told us we needed to start making our way towards the main casino that they had caught the shooter and he was dead, that it was safe to go. Being locals, we asked how we could get home and they only told us at the time we could walk to koval, that was not an option. So we made our way to the lobby and spoke to a young man who claimed he was in charge of all the VIP tents at the concert we exchanged gratitude that each other was safe and he told us there were taxi cabs outside waiting to take people where they needed to be I reluctantly went outside with [REDACTED] and got into the taxi cab line we were there for about 3 min when a man started making his way through the line asking if anyone had wanted to share a taxi to the hard rock knowing that was probably our best bet at getting home I ran up to him and said we do If we got into the cab with 2 wonderful ladies who's accent led me to believe they were from London we told them our experience and the horror we had just gone through the nice lady took 20.00 out of her purse and gave it to the taxi driver and told him to take us as far and as fast as he could home he agreed and took us home except when we got home he made us pay for the entire trip from the mgm to the hard rock to our home. He pocketed the cash the women gave him and took advantage of us. Instead of arguing with the guy which boyfriend had begun to do I said ya know what I don't care I am home and swiped my card and ran inside to my family. My sister in law had the door already open and her arms open wide we cried and hugged each other as tight as we could then my brother then I ran upstairs kissed and hugged my 9 year old daughter over and over again I tried to wake her but she was talking in her sleep and smiling I had never been so happy to see my little girl then I ran to room thinking my son was there but he wasn't he was fast asleep in his own bed I crawled in next to him and broke down in tears holding him kissing him smelling him my one year old son wouldn't know he almost lost his parents that night. My boyfriend and I cut off our bracelets threw them away and took a shower as we cried and held each other thanking god we were home.

DETAILS We were in the Skybox #3, first floor. We heard what sounded like firecrackers. We listened. It continued. Then we heard more & more shots. - One after another - then we saw the crowds running towards the suite. We then realized it wasn't firecrackers & ran. We then hid in a food truck - thinking we could drive out. But we couldn't & shots got louder & closer. We ran - a huge fence was pushed down. We ran over the fence & went towards the airport. We hid behind buildings at multiple points, but figured that wasn't safe. We continued to run? find places to hide, until we made it to a private airplane hanger. We figured upstairs would be most safe & stayed there until police came w/ buses.

EVENT#: 171001-3519

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

MC: It was right in the middle.

RR: Okay.

MC: Um, where, like, they - I want to say where, like, they shine all the lights on the concert at.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: Um, and I was just dancing and having a good time, and then I heard a bunch of, like, firecracker sounds, I guess. And I just thought it was part of the concert, and so I kind of just kept doing what I was doing and then once it started again, and I saw people running and I - I don't - I just turned around and started running. And then I ended up tripping over, like a speed bump thing, and I fell, and that's when I got shot when I was already laying down, but I stayed down because I thought people were on the floor, like, shooting people. Thank you. And then some guy came and picked me up out of nowhere and just got me over his shoulder and ran. And then he -- I don't even know where he went but he put me under a car so he could go get help and then to keep me safe because we didn't know where it was coming from. And then I got brought into a - a - an apartment complex from there where people were hiding, they helped me. And then that's when the ambulance came and took me here.

RR: You came here? Didn't go anywhere else?

MC: I don't think -- yeah, I think I came straight here in the, um, from the guy's apartment, there's a -- 200 people in there, like, hiding. There's, like, packed insane. The lights were off and everything, and then I was in the bathtub with, um, like and ex-marine, that's who carried me. So he was like, tying my belt around my waist and stuff and, yeah, and then he brought me, I mean, the paramedic brought me straight here.

RR: When you're hearing the popping, like, the firecracker sound, kind of where is that coming from, do you remember?

MC: I honestly thought it was from the concert.

RR: Yeah.

MC: Like, it's a concert, there's fireworks and then when there wasn't a firework, I don't even think I thought twice...

RR: Yeah.

MC: ...because, I don't know, you're having fun...

RR: Yeah.

MC: ...and doing whatever and that's the last thing you're thinking about, and then he kept singing and, like, people were running from the stage to the back, like, where I was, so I -- that's when I got scared. I thought that, like, people were coming from up there shooting because it sounded like multiple people, like, it was not -- it did not, like, it just kept going and going and going, like, it didn't stop even when I was already at the hotel room, like, we still heard things.

RR: How long do you think that was?

MC: I honestly, like, like, 15 minutes, like, it was going on and then you'd hear things from, um, like, different sides, I guess, like, from different areas to where -- that's why he told me don't get up from underneath this car, like, there's people on the floor for, like, looking for people because they would stop...

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: ...and then we'd go, so it was almost I felt, like, like, they were looking or something and then find a group of people and, I don't know. I didn't know anything and I still have limited, like, what I want to know, so I've kind of, like, not asked questions or looked into it. I mean, I know what I've been told, but I don't really have any desire to know things right now, you know, so.

RR: So just to confirm, um, if the concert is -- let's say the front here and back, right, like, the farthest away from it...

MC: Not even, like, so, like, say this is the stage and there's all these alcohol or, like, bars on this side.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: Like, right here in the middle is just this stand that we kept meeting at, like, where, like, they -- I want to say they were record the concert from there so it can go on the big screen, oops.

RR: Sorry.

MC: And then you can still go behind that, but it was on AstroTurf.

RR: Okay.

MC: It almost looked like, like, fireworks next to me.

RR: So when you fell, this is the sparks you see are on the gravel around you?

MC: Mm-hm.

RR: A lot?

MC: Yeah.

RR: More than two?

MC: No, like, consistent but not, like, like, I knew what it was.

RR: Sure.

MC: Like, enough to, like, think that I was gonna get shot again.

RR: Sure.

MC: You know? And then within seconds, like, he, like, picked me up and then I just did whatever I was told to do, like, I just -- I didn't think that there was any other option really.

RR: Mm-hm.

MC: And it was so, like, your body just took control and just, like, I didn't believe it until, like, I went like that and was, like, holy shit, like, I'm bleeding, you know. Um, and then I kind of just followed the crowd, I mean, no, I didn't, like, he was. Everybody was just, kind of, running, so.

DETAILS

Attending the Route 91 Festival & was watching Jason Aldean perform. I was located in front of the stage on the left side below DJ Jay Selzer's set up. I heard firecrackers or what to appear to sound like firecrackers. Next thing I knew people were screaming & a lady that was a few people down from me appeared to have suffered a gun shot wound to the upper left chest. People huddled her over the fence barrier by the stage & I hunkered down on the ground. The gun shot were more rapid & sounded close. I grab my wife and ran to the left of the stage and proceed to run toward the Airport where we (wife) found a safe place at the Grand Canyon Helicopter Lounge. Police showed up & escorted us to buses & ended up at UNLB.

DETAILS Attending the Rte 91 Harvest Festival. We were watching the final concert on Sun. night Jason Aldean. At about 10pm we heard what we thought were fire works, then we heard it again and knew it wasn't. We ducked down then about a minute later started running out the venue toward Hooters. While running my daughter and I fell, I felt at that time the shot to my foot. We got up continue to run until we reached Hooters and hid in an unknown person room. Once in the room I then notice I also was shot in the butt. Someone got a hold of medics. They arrived and took my daughter and I to Southern Hills hospital.

DETAILS On October 1, 2017 I was at the Route 91 Harvest Festival at approximately 2000 hrs as I was standing center stage listening to Jason Aldean perform, a few feet to my right side (towards the LV Strip) I heard what appeared to be firecrackers in the audience. A few minutes later, I heard what I assume were gunshots and about that same time I heard unidentified people scream and yell things such as "get down, get down." My daughter, [REDACTED] was with me and we immediately assumed prone positions on the ground. I placed my body on top of [REDACTED] body to shield her from potentially being shot. We could hear multiple gunshots as well as what I believe were the bullets ricocheting off the surrounding metal gates.

DESCRIPCION DETALLADA I told my daughter we needed to stay low to the ground and we did for approximately 10 minutes (give or take). When the shooting paused I told [REDACTED] we needed to crawl, low to the ground & get away from the area. [REDACTED] was also telling me that we needed to get out of the area. We had to step over several people who were bleeding and appeared unconscious. ~~the~~ Once we were out of the "PLAZA" area we ran towards the East of the festival area and as we ran from the center bar area to the vendors & porta potties [REDACTED] said "Man, I've been hit in my foot! My foot!" I told her we needed to keep running so we did. We exited through the rear gate and were on the sidewalk behind the Catholic.

church. We walked East along the sidewalk until we saw police vehicles. I then approached the uniformed Officer who was directing traffic and told him [REDACTED] had been shot. He directed us to an area on the curb, next to a patrol car. There were several others who had obvious wounds and were covered in blood.
Unknown civilians assessed [REDACTED] leg, calf area and we utilized a black Sam Hunt concert t-shirt to tie around her calf area as a ~~first~~^{se} tourniquet to apply pressure & stop the bleeding.
We then got up and walked towards the Horters Hotel. Once there we were directed to a triage area and again a civilian checked Meriah and advised us it was not an emergent wound and we should go to our hotel. I contacted a family friend, [REDACTED] who was in the strip area, and he met us at the Motel 6 on Koral and Tropicana.
He drove us to Spring Valley Hospital. This concludes my report.

DETAILS My wife and I were standing facing the stage at Route 91 on the left side facing. Please see Diagram for approx. location.

Stage

We were watching the third or fourth song right after the set started and we heard three pops that sounded like fireworks. We looked at each other & said "What was that" and we turned back thinking it was nothing. Then we heard a few more pops 8-10 and then just a ton of gunfire. The sound seemed to come from our 4 o'clock while facing the stage. We didn't know exactly what was happening until it seemed like something exploded which was hot right in our faces. We thought it was something electric that blew up. I thought maybe it was a grenade or something. As soon as that happened, I grabbed my wife and threw her to the ground and kept telling her to keep her head down. We kept hearing gunfire that was about 50-100 shots. It stopped and I looked around and I saw the woman in front of us on the ground with blood pouring from her head. Her guy was over the top of her holding her and trying to wake her up. More gunfire started and another 50-100 shots and I covered my wife and told her to keep her head down. We heard a bunch of people saying if we don't get moving we are going to get trampled and when the gunfire stopped a bunch of people ran away. I picked my wife up and we ran. I remember her saying she needs to grab her shoe. We ran off towards the back of the venue away from the sound of shooting and Las Vegas Blvd. We kept running and kept hearing gunshots. All of them sounded like auto gunfire, they were all in a row and at the same rate. This was when I told my wife I think I was shot. I had blood on my left shoulder and it kept coming. We kept running and got behind a fence at the venue and found a police vehicle. There were a bunch of people ducked behind the vehicle. My wife told the officer that I was shot but they kept bringing more people over and many officers said they were hit too. We kept hearing gunfire. It sounded like the bullets were hitting the stage and the ground as there were these black black black sounds along with the gunfire distinct sound. We stayed behind the vehicle until I realized that we weren't going to get any help with so many people around and I didn't want to keep bleeding. We waited until the gunfire stopped and took off down the road towards Tropicana. We kept following the crowd and we went in the back of Tropicana. We didn't even get in the back of Tropicana when people started running back out the door screaming. We turned around and headed towards Las Vegas Blvd and towards Ixor. I can't remember anymore if we heard more guns or not but I remember when I got across the street we said we need to go back to Mandalay to our cars. I didn't want to take on a ambulance of someone else who Might need it more. I told her (my wife) she needs to take me to the emergency room. We knew a new ER opened on Blue Diamond right by our house and it would not be full. We ran towards Luxor and were stopped by a security guard who told us there was a shooter in Mandalay Bay. This was at approx 10:20pm. I called my parents and told them I was shot but that I was going to be okay. We followed the security guard inside and she treated my wounds with saline and gauze. I told her after she treated me that I needed to leave as I didn't want to take an ambulance. She let me go and I headed towards Mandalay Bay but were stopped and told we couldn't go that way. They brought us to the Chris Angel Theatre and Metro officers escorted us out towards the parking structures at Luxor. We walked through the structure to Frank Sinatra Dr. and made our way to the carparked at Mandalay. I told my wife to drive me to the ER by our house while I kept pressure on the wound. We arrived at the ER at approx 11:30pm and was treated right away. We left around 1am after being released with a diagnosis of shrapnel in my arm and neck. We got home and arrived around 1:15am.

DETAILS I was at the Route 91 Harvest Festival and Jason Arden was only about 3 songs into his set. I was up by the front left side of the "cat walk" part of the stage when I heard rapid bangs, which I thought was fire works. We all saw Jason Arden run off stage, so we all hit the ground and layed there a more rapid bangs. We realized it was bad and immediately fled fast on foot out the left part of venue. As we ran, I saw a lady in a wheelchair who was badly in multiple parts of her abdomen & body. My group hunkered down in nearby airport van and then transported to UNLV Thomas & Mack Center.

DW: [REDACTED], can you just tell us a little bit about where you were, what happened, what occurred, anything that you seen.

AD: My wife and I were standing maybe 30 feet in front of the spotlights that were on the right side of the stage - so closest to the Mandalay Bay. And first we heard what we - sounded like firecrackers - sounded close proximity. Then there was only a few - I couldn't tell ya, maybe four or five. And then there was a pause and the crowd kinda paused too. But then it picked back up and everybody I'm sure was thinking it was just firecrackers. And then there another series of what sounded like a small caliber handgun again. And sounded like small caliber handgun and it was just a few again and - maybe four or five. But this time I felt something hit my back and I thought it was some of the people who were running and, uh, later I found out it was a, uh, what I would call a skip round or a ricochet. 'Cause I have a bruise and it didn't penetrate but it caused, uh, a breaking of my skin. And following that I knew somethin' was up and I'm yelling at everybody to get down, get down. And people started getting down. And that's when you hear the rapid fire, high power - my guess was a .223 type firearm - whether it was an AK or an AR or whatever I don't know. But it was - the sound it made was a pretty good -- (simulating the sound of gunfire) -- and multiple. And then there was a pause, I'm tellin' everybody run, just run. Grabbin' people off the ground, pushin' people, tellin' 'em run, run, run. And we also ran and some people were trippin' and fallin', pick 'em up and help 'em and just run. And we tried to take some cover - it was more concealment because we tried to get behind a, uh, one of the bars and there was a bunch of people hunkered down there, out of sight. And we go down - I pushed her down and got on top of her and right after that you could hear the rounds skippin', whizzin', and then I took one to the shoulder. And, uh, I said, "I'd been hit. I'd been hit." I said, "I've been hit. I've been hit." And some people pulled me up closer to the bar and I asked the gentleman that had pulled me up on top of him - it was a little guy - to put pressure on my shoulder - push as hard as you can - cause I didn't know the extent of the damage and I knew I needed to stop the bleeding. And after that I, uh, somebody comes running up says we gotta go and we all knew that. So we waited for the next volley to stop and we all got up and just ran. My wife and I ran, took cover, out behind - furthest away from -- I don't know the street -- but furthest away from the Mandalay Bay. During the - the shooting you could tell it was coming from the northwest side. You could hear the direction. I couldn't see any flashes. I was looking for muzzle flash and I just didn't - I don't know if it was my timing or if I wasn't lookin' in the right spots. But I could tell it was coming from northwest side. I think that's northwest. Anyway we made it out to a patrol unit and some off-duty paramedic cut my shirt off, grabbed my shirt, my wife's shirt, threw it on, did applied pressure and somebody came by with a - a belt to help cinch it down and keep the pressure on and we got up - we knew we had to get out of there 'cause we're still in the line of fire. I saw cars goin' - just people jumpin' in cars. Cars were bottoming out, wheel wells were getting' scraped by the tires cars were so full. Saw some people that were in dire need of medical attention just being thrown in - they appeared lifeless but man I hope they made it. And they tried to put me in one of them there's not enough room. So we kept pushin' and went to, uh, went around the backside of the Tropicana and their security staff had said the building was locked down and appar- a ambulance came rollin' up and, um, some people flagged it down, got in front of it to get it to stop and said, hey, he's been shot. And the said well they needed to get to the scene where other people had been shot and drove away. So I ended up - my wife and I ended up just bearin' down and puttin' as much pressure as I could and ran over to the MGM. Not one taxi would render any help. And a gentleman decided he wanted to start videotaping me with an iPhone. And we made it into the MGM where their staff had set up a triage with their EMT people. And, uh, they EMT'd us and then at some point people started to panic -- because they think they saw people with blood and injuries been shot -- started yellin' that there's a shooter in the MGM and everybody ran. And, uh, it - it quelled and about an hour and a half I was there I finally got a gurney back to the hospital where they checked me in.

DW: How'd you get to the hospital?

AD: Ah ambulance.

DW: Did they bring you to this hospital or were you transferred?

AD: They did - they transported me here because they determined that my injuries weren't as significant as some of the others that were going to the closer hospitals.

DW: Okay. And you said you - you haven't done surgery but you're possibly gonna do surgery back in California?

AD: Yeah. It's been recommended that I have surgery to remove the shrapnel and clean the wound because the doctor's afraid that -- well he's not afraid -- he said I would have, um, infection and they wanna clean it and they wanna get the shrapnel out.
And if at that time they can remove the - the bullet that's lodged between my rib cage and my lung they'll remove it. Otherwise if they can't get to it they're just gonna make sure to clean it thoroughly and leave it there.

DW: And your - you'll be gettin' out - so are you drivin' back tonight or how are you gettin' back?

AD: The Sheriff's Department is arranging air.

DW: Oh very nice. Okay.

DW: Okay.

AD: But one of those two. I'm headed to Pasadena Huntington Memorial Hospital.

DW: In speaking with your wife over this I - did she see anything different? Did she just stay by your side and...

AD: We got separated a couple times but we were - we were side-by-side. The only reason we got separated was 'cause when we ran I don't know if I passed her or she passed me. She came back to look for me but it was only for a few seconds. She saw and heard the same thing I heard. She's a Lieutenant on the Department as well.

DW: Oh. All right. Well thank you for your time. If, uh, if you have any questions or anything like that we'll leave, uh, our number for ya. Um...

AD: All right.

DW: ...but we appreciate your time and best of luck and good luck.

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: It's an open concrete. I don't know how many yards that is, but there was a brief moment of silence and I thought, I'm just gonna run. I'm not gonna lay here and just get shot. So I stood up to run, there was maybe 10 feet from the entrance of the House of Blues, and he shot my arm and it turned into a zombie arm. It just - it just failed.

UM: Mmm.

ND: So then I got into the House of Blues and there's a bartender there and he said that we're still in the line of fire and you need to come inside. And so he pulled - he pulled us inside and I was able to walk. Then people had knocked down the chain linked fence, like off on to where the parking lot was...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: And then I saw them - I saw bullets just flying off of the stage, though. I'm not doing this, no, all right.

UM: Okay.

ND: I couldn't see anything at that point and then they said, "They're coming towards us, they're coming towards us." 'Cause everybody said they're at the VIP bathrooms. That's where everybody said the shots were coming from.

UM: Right.

ND: It sounded like that but the echo on the - in the strip was so - you know what I mean? The echo is really confusing.

UM: Yeah, it is...

ND: But I - I don't know, I was the only - me and the man were the only two running.

UM: All right. So when you got to the Uber car, was there still shots going?

ND: Yeah.

UM: Okay. And then that's when you left and you got to the hospital.

STATEMENT OF: [REDACTED]

ND: Well, I laid down on the - on the ground for probably like five minutes...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...and then they didn't know what to do 'cause there wasn't any EMS there, you know, so they weren't there yet. So we were just - people were just coming over and they were shot and people were just sort of tie stuff on and nurses were there, like people who were there in the crowd. And the officers were - had their guns toward Mandalay Bay...

UM: Mm-hm.

ND: ...when I was underneath, I was right next to a cop car and people who weren't shot just made a human barrier around me and then the - like I said Dave from LA Fire, he just put me in the car and told me, "You're not gonna die." And then I just got here and - I got here and then that's all I know, really.

UM: Okay. Thank you.

DETAILS I was standing facing the right hand side of the stage, about 15ft back from the stage. I heard a series of pops to my right, towards the Mandalay Bay, but ignored it as people remarked it was fireworks. I then heard more and more pops and people began collapsing for cover. In between pops I saw a woman blowing. After about 5 min total from the initial pops I got my wife over a barricade but hit the ground myself when the pops continued. I got up and not seeing my wife I began running towards the airport. My wife made it safely to our hotel the Monte Carlo, and I took shelter in an airport hangar with 40 or so people. I stayed until police arrived and based us to UNLV.

DETAILS Was at Route 91 concert venue when I heard popping noises coming from the direction of the strip towards Mandalay Bay. Initial thought was fireworks as part of show but quickly identified as automatic gun fire. I fled the venue with the mass hysteria of the crowds. I observed a male in venue on ground yelling he was shot in the leg. I had no injuries just displaced from the Luxor where I was staying.

me and my boyfriend sat on other side of hay bales watching the tear down at the stage when that conversation took place. We were actively ignoring events around us. We were tired after 3 days of concerts and just wanted to see Jason Alden perform. A white young couple arguing at Entrance 3, yellow shirt security responded. At that time, I had no recollection of the conversation.

Approx 2130

We used the porta pods at north end. 4 people on the hay bales were gone as well as the workers. We walked down the concessions. The lights were on but nobody was home. All vacant. White smoke plumed across the grill. Feeling

Approx 2135

East opening located between porta pods. A House of Blues completely open. Ramp fence gone, metro gone, puppy gone. Single metro vehicle with lights on on the other side of the fence.

Boyfriend spoke to couple in front of House of Blues.

We took a few steps west when the show began. Air was thick. I wanted to stay in the back.

2140h: Boyfriend asked if I wanted to make up. I told him no, I'm good here.

3rd song ended approx 2153hr

Approx 2155h: Jason Alden talked for a few minutes. Took over to Fire Church heading for the stage.

2200h: Alden walked up the stage towards the audience. Poppers (fireworks) went off by the long bar east side. Poppers (fireworks) east side of stage. Lights on ground; smoke rose. Alden stopped.
